GALATOIRE'S BISTRO TO RELOCATE

BATON ROUGE, La. – May 31, 2011 – Galatoire's Bistro will move to a new restaurant location nearer to the center of Baton Rouge. This new location will allow the restaurant to be closer to business customers, in addition to the Bistro's strong, local, loyal clientele.

Galatoire's Bistro expects to announce its new address sometime later this summer.

"Galatoire's Bistro has built a reputation for the finest French cuisine available in Baton Rouge. Quite simply, we want Galatoire's Bistro to be closer to the growing, vibrant neighborhoods of Baton Rouge, especially downtown, Southdowns, the Capitol area and the Garden District," said Todd Troclair, chairman of the board of Galatoire's. "Our new location will continue to offer classic French Louisiana cuisine with the freshest Gulf seafood and excellent service."

In anticipation of moving to a new location, Galatoire's Bistro ceased operations at its 17451 Perkins Road location, Sunday, May 30.

In 2010, 225 Magazine named Galatoire's Bistro the Best French Dining in Baton Rouge. The restaurant has received the Wine Spectator Award of Excellence annually since 2007, recognizing Galatoire's Bistro's extensive wine program.
